NOTICE TO AUTHORS.

ROYAL COMMISSION UPON COPYRIGHT.

To meet the views expressed by the Royal Commissioners, after they had heard the evidence of the leading authors of the day (see Report dated the 24th May, 1878), Messieurs NEWMAN & CO. have adopted a new system of publication, which secures to the author a full and lasting reward for his labours.

In the case of authors desiring to retain a permanent interest in their works, Messieurs NEWMAN & CO. now send all title-pages to the author to be stamped or initialed before binding. And in their agreement, Messieurs NEWMAN & CO. undertake not to sell any copy without it bears such initials or stamp; and in the event of their doing so, under their form of agreement, the copyright in, together with all property connected with, such work reverts absolutely to the author.

It will thus be seen that an author under this new system obtains a full record of the progress made by his work, and the royalties due to him.

Messieurs NEWMAN & CO. undertake the publication of approved Scientific, Educational, and Domestic Works; Poetry, Novels, and all Works of Fiction, and Children's Works.

NEWMAN & CO.'S RECENT PUBLICATIONS.

8vo, cloth, 4s., at all Libraries.
LAURA DIBALZO; or, the Patriot Martyrs. By R. H. Horne,
Author of "Orion," "The Death of Marlowe," &c.

"I have read it with my old admiration for your fiery, unconquerable spirit and your impassioned dramatic power."—EDMUND C. STEDMAN, Author of "Victorian Poets."

LIFE and SOCIETY in AMERICA. By Samuel Phillips Day,
Author of "Down South," "English America; or, Pictures of Canadian Places and People." Demy 8vo, cloth, 12s. 6d.

"Such an interesting and amusing book is sure to find plenty of readers. The book ought to be studied by all who want to see the shadows as well as the lights of American society."—Graphic.

"This is a work of uncommon merit."—Galignani's Messenger.

"The present volume is described as the first series; few readers will put it down without wishing for the second."—Morning Advertiser.

[The Second Series will be ready in a few days.]

NEW BULGARIA. By J. Lewis Farley, Conseiller Privé au
Département des Travaux Publics de Bulgarie. Post-free, 2s. 6d., at all Bookstalls and Booksellers'.

"An important little volume on the present aspect of Bulgaria and its future prospects. . . . Most people are in a fog with regard to this much-talked-of, constantly written-about province. If they wish to emerge from that fog they cannot do better than read Mr. Lewis Farley's excellent book."—Sunday Times.

HOW to TEACH and LEARN MODERN LANGUAGES. By F. LICHTENBERGER. 8vo, cloth, 2s. 6d.

"An exceedingly useful book."—Examiner.

"It is an admirable little volume, full of sound criticisms and valuable practical suggestions. We wish that it could be placed in the hands of every schoolmaster and school-mistress in the country, and that its contents might be laid to heart by them. For instructors of youth, and for learners who have passed the age of childhood, we can, and do most cordially, commend this volume."—Literary World.

"This is not a grammar of any language, but rather a disquisition on the best method of going to work to learn it. No matter what books the student may have in hand, he will derive benefit from adding this to them. The student will find his labour much facilitated by the perusal of such a treatise as this. It can be read without disarranging any particular course of study."—British Mail.

BIBLE TRAGEDIES. By Richard Hengist Horne. 1 vol.
Truly, though newly, Dramatised. [Ready in a few days.]

I.—JOHN the BAPTIST; or, the Valour of the Soul. II.—JOB'S WIFE; or, the Cruel Wager. III.—JUDAS ISCARIOT: a Tragic Mystery.

THE DOOM of the GREAT CITY; or, London Destroyed by Fog.
By WILLIAM DELISLE HAY. 1s., post-free.

"This is a highly alarmist pamphlet, giving an account of how all the inhabitants of London were suddenly asphyxiated in a fog two years hence. The account is preceded by a very lively description of the folly and sin of the capital, which, it appears, provoked this catastrophe."—Academy.

"Since the famous brochure 'The Battle of Dorking,' nothing in the way of imaginative literature has been published so vivid in its portraiture of a possible calamity. . . . We consider the book exceedingly interesting."

"A very startling little pamphlet, which casts a prophetic gaze into the future. It is supposed to be written in Australia in 1942, by one of the survivors of a terrible catastrophe which overwhelms London in 1882. . . . We can but express our admiration of the imaginative power which is displayed in it, and the skill with which the horror of the tragedy is brought out the more strongly by means of the details of every-day life which are introduced."—John Bull.

"The author wields a powerful pen, and whether describing the vices of the modern Babylon before its ruin, or depicting the incidents of the fearful doom, he is equally forcible and graphic."—Belfast News.

"This extraordinary little book should be perused by all who have sympathy with exciting literature. It is a marvellous narrative, and rivals in parts the plague-painting of bygone authors."—Brighton Gazette.

"The author gives a very sensational and pathetic account of the hypothetical sudden death of the whole population of London. There is evidently much power of description in his pen."—Public Opinion.

"The work is powerfully and graphically written; there is an amount of vraisemblance about it that is at times positively startling."—Sunday Times.

The best Books of every shade of opinion, on all subjects of general interest, have been taken in large numbers—Hundreds, and in some instances Thousands, of Copies of the Leading Works of every Season having been placed in circulation on the day of publication.

The prosperity of the Library is, in great measure, due to the co-operation of those Subscribers who chiefly require Books of sterling interest and merit. In the selection of Books great care has always been taken to study their wishes, and to make the Library, not only "Select," but comprehensive.

Additional Copies of all the best New Works in History, Biography, Religion, Philosophy, Travel and Adventure, and the Higher Class of Fiction continue to be added as the demand increases; and arrangements are made with the leading Publishers for an ample supply of the principal Works already announced for the New Season, and of all other Forthcoming Books of general interest as they appear.

NEW SADLER'S WELLS.

(200 yards from the Angel.)
Proprietor and Manager, Mrs. S. F. BATEMAN.

To-night, OTHELLO. Mrs. Bateman has been encouraged by the success of her last season's Shakespearian revivals to endeavour to produce "Othello" in a more complete manner, both as regards the distribution of characters and those minor essentials—scenery, dresses, and appointments. She has been greatly aided in this by the valuable suggestions of Mr. Edward W. Godwin, F.R.S.A., from whose designs the principal dresses have been made. The introduction of a Madrigal, composed in the sixteenth century by Gio. Croce, is the only innovation, and one it is hoped, warranted by the text.
